With the arrival of spring comes the arrival of a new season in the church's life; a season that we do not speak about much. Lent. Even though the two seasons speak about the same Lord, they are quite different from each other. Let's notice the difference here for just a moment.

Advent is four glory-filled weeks. In Advent, with Christmas Trees lit, and candles distributed, and ugly sweaters on, we sing of the incarnation of Jesus Christ. In Hope, Love, Joy, and Peace we prepare our homes (and our church) for the arrival of the baby whose life and work will reconcile us to His Father in heaven. . .

Lent though is different.

For starters Lent is six weeks in length, and beginning on March 2nd, the tenor of our worship will be different. Lent asks us to live differently. Normally joyful hymns will be replaced by ones whose words are stark and poignant and speak strongly about what is to come on Maundy Thursday and Good Friday. Instead of "Glory to the Newborn King!" we will sing, "Ride on, Ride on in Majesty, Ride on to die."

We don't decorate the church in Lent. While we may hang banners that reference the suffering savior, that mood is balanced by an understanding that the grave could not hold Him. The stone will be rolled away.

While Advent culminates in the joy of Christmas, Easter feels so far away, so untouchable, as Lent begins. Our services will be serious and our hearts should feel different in Lent.

In Lent, we are asked by God to be introspective, still, contrite, honest, and reflective. Tradition tells us in Lent to consider why Jesus had to suffer? We are asked in Lent to silently wonder about the role we, and our sin, play in His death? And while we would say today that we would never deny Christ as Peter did, our behaviors in Lent, and our considerations and reflections, make us wonder at that statements validity.

And so in Lent this year I wonder if you might find some time for a Lenten discipline? In more traditional language will you give something up for Lent?

Often I have joked with the youth of the church that I am giving up sinning for Lent. This makes them laugh because as soon as I say that idea, I am lying, and so I am sinning. But more seriously, what would it look like if God asked you to give something up for Lent? And how might you be called to make that choice and live into it?

I have a friend who gives up chocolate every year for Lent. Then he goes out and buys the biggest candy bar that he can find. It comes with him to church on Easter morning, and after worship, as we greet one another, he eats the candy bar in celebration. It makes people laugh, but he is fasting for Lent so that he might have time to be more spiritual introspective and prayerful before God. As he fasts, he spends time in prayer and reflection.

But there is another choice that God might ask you to make. . . What about giving up, NOT doing something. (Read that again). In this case I know another person who in Lent adds something to her life in order to become more service oriented in Christ. She reflectively, prayerfully, considers how might God be asking her to live differently in Lent and then she lives that out for those 6 weeks. One year she gave up, not going to visit members of the church who were sick—she visited the sick which was something that she didn't do enough. She and I spoke about this and decided that this was the best way forward for her.

Lent is not just the time to stop drinking coffee, or eating chocolate, or trying eat more healthy. As we spend time with God, Lent can also be a time where we lean into practices of faithfulness because we realize how much God has done for us by sending Jesus to the cross.

I hope that you will find some time this Lenten season to engage in a holy Lent of disciplines. . . and as you do. . . I hope that you and God come closer together.

Blessings,
Rev. Derek

Confirmation/Communicants' Classes will begin on March 20. For more information, contact the church office or Rev. Marotta.

Bethesda will host a blood drive on March 29 from 2-7 pm. Mark your calendars. More information to come.

The Worship Committee is looking to build a list of persons in the military so we can do a better job of outreach and contact. These persons do not have to be members or directly related to anyone in the church, but if you have connections to such persons, please provide names, addresses, and a brief blurb about the person and where and how he/ she is serving our country. Questions? Contact Alberta Anthony or Dorothy Williamson.

Have you thought of honoring someone by putting flowers in the church for Worship Service? It is as easy as signing up on the flower chart in the church vestibule or by calling the church office to see if a specific date is available. Flowers are a great way to say that you care, and they beautify the sanctuary on Sunday morning. Let the office know what you want put in the bulletin.

Dimes for Hunger Update

We have received a letter of thanks in appreciation of our donation of $600 in 2021 for Dimes for Hunger. The total offering collected by Providence Presbytery in 2021 was $51,819.21. The other half, 25,901.60, will help provide food assistance through our partners in Guatemala, Honduras, and Malawi. Since Dimes for Humber began in 1977, Providence Presbytery has shared $1892.571.61 to offer hope and love to our hungry neighbors here at home and in other parts of God's world.

Our Mission

We celebrate the sharing of the Good News of Jesus Christ who is the head of the Church. Through the leading of the Holy Spirit, we are God's servants dedicated to the nurturing of all people in faith, service and fellowship; providing service to those in need; comforting the bereaved; ministering to the sick; offering solace to the troubled; and always seeking the lost.

We invite all believers in the Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, to share the communion loaf and cup of communion as symbols of our unity and service to the Risen Lord.
