Herod's Temple

The Israelites' Courtyard, where sacrifices were made, was used only by male Jews who were worshipping. The Holy Place, which was the temple of Yahweh itself, was only used by priests. The Women's Courtyard was accessible to all Jews. The Gentiles' Courtyard, which was outside on the Temple Mount, was open to the general public.

Chapter 3

The church begins its work. . . Some time has passed but we do not know how much or what its impact is. But nonetheless the disciples seem to be growing I both faith . . . and confidence.

- The Beautiful Gate is pictured above...
- probably

- What do we learn about this man?
  - What response did the man make OR what response was he supposed to make?

Peter's Second Sermon

- Linked the patriarchs, and their history with Jesus—but notice he defines Jesus a little differently.
  - “Your servant” — important word for Luke!
  - So what do you learn from this idea as we think about it?

Verse 14- Notice who the crowd asks to be given instead of freeing Jesus. Luke tells us more than we first read in his gospel. And this ‘more,’ is quite significant. It tells us more about how they felt about Christ on that night.

- The “Author of Life”. What does this mean?

Peter's forgiven state. . . “we are witnesses.” Did they witness his death?

- Once ignorant. . . now a witness.
- The Holy Spirit is tied to the sending of Jesus in verse 20.
  - We don't hear that much but perhaps we should
