Are you done being Thankful? It is traditional in November to spend our time thinking and remembering to give God thanks for all He has done for us over the past year. But often that practice stops as Advent begins... strange, isn't it?

At the most important time of the year as we celebrate Christ's birth, many of us do not make the space and time to give God thanks for how he has blessed and cared for us. But maybe we should... maybe we could.

As Anne Lamott wrote: "We and life are spectacularly flawed and complex. Often we do not get out of our own way. . . Sometimes circumstances conspire to remind us or even let us glimpse how thin the membrane is between here and there, between birth and the grave, between the human and the divine. In wonder at the occasional direct experience of this, we say, Thank you."

With the coming of Advent, and all of the expectations of this season as they press down upon us in an unbearable way, and as the temptation grows moment by moment to forget any sense of Thanksgiving, I encourage you to pause. I encourage you to seek the place of gratitude—right now.

Even if the very first breath of your day brings with it the expectations of full schedules, of doctor's appointments, stress at work, and the aches and pains of healing, perhaps there is a place where you can say to God 'thank you'—not any of the suffering that you went to bed with.

But perhaps you can find the space, even for just the briefest of moments as the day begins, to give thanks to God for how the Lord of Heaven and Earth has watched you sleep and how God helped you to open your eyes. And even if that first step and stretch is painful and, like me, you groan and crack and wobble as you first walk, God is there to hold you by the hand. He is there to take you by the hand if things don't move as smoothly as you would like.

And so again, perhaps the first prayer of each day this month can mirror the prayers of last month: Thank You.

Grace and Peace

Derek

Helping our neighbors:

Plentiful Harvest Kitchen - A team from Bethesda served 201 dinners on November 30.

Please help replenish our "Blessing Box" and Food Pantry. Suggested items are non-perishable food items, inexpensive can openers, and small hygiene items. (powdered milk, evaporated milk, saltine crackers, coffee, sugar, canned fruit, peanut butter, jelly, canned meat or pasta items, spaghetti sauce, pasta, small cereal boxes, etc). A basket is available weekly in the vestibule for donations. There is also a basket in the Fellowship Hall for those who wish to make contributions at the Wednesday Night Dinners. These items are used to fill the "Blessing Box", distributed to people who request help through the Bethesda Benevolence Fund, and delivered regularly to local food distribution organizations. Thank you for your contributions to this ministry.

Our Mission

We celebrate the sharing of the Good News of Jesus Christ who is the head of the Church. Through the leading of the Holy Spirit, we are God's servants dedicated to the nurturing of all people in faith, service and fellowship; providing service to those in need; comforting the bereaved; ministering to the sick; offering solace to the troubled; and always seeking the lost.

We invite all believers in the Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, to share the communion loaf and cup of communion as symbols of our unity and service to the Risen Lord.
